THIS IS WHAT YOUR PARTNERSHIP MAKES POSSIBLE:

RELAUNCHED COMSTOCK MIDDLE SCHOOL CAMPUS LIFE

Last fall, YFC relaunched a Campus Life Club at Comstock Middle School. The club was hosted in the Family Worship Center building across the street from the middle school and had a total of 55 students who attended. That equates to 1/6 of the total population of the school!

COLONIAL ACRES GETS A BASKETBALL COURT

The Colonial Acres City Life purchased and installed an outdoor basketball court this Summer through a generous donations from Consumers Concrete and a grant by the City of Portage.

SUMMER & WINTER YOUTH CAMPS

YFC took a total of 91 middle and high school students to Camp this past year. Kalamazoo YFC partnered with Stateline YFC in Illinois to host a Summer Camp in Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. YFC also held a Winter Camp in January of 2023. Twelve young people gave their lives to Jesus for the first time at these camps.

THRIFT STORE FIRST YEAR'S SUCCESS

In their first full year of operation, New Way Thrift Store was able to cut Kalamazoo Youth for Christ a check for $80,000 from their sales proceeds.

Jason Duncan, New Way General Manager, and his wife Lisa presented Youth for Christ a check on August 1, 2023 for the previous year.

BECOME A VOLUNTEER!

"I just wanted a man in my life. Ever since my Dad died, it's been just women. That's why I wanted a mentor." -Edward
